

A note from Auditor Yost on a UAN User Fee Reduction

To our UAN clients,

I am pleased to announce a five percent reduction in the monthly UAN user fee. This reduction is a direct result of the continued growth in the UAN clients. I am very excited about the sustained growth in the number of entities using UAN as their financial management system.

This reduction is in addition to the hardware surcharge holiday announced late last year that will be in place until Dec 31, 2014. It should be noted that the user fee reduction will not impact any past due amounts. So, for the very small percentage of clients that are past due please continue to work with us to address these issues.

Thank you for your dedicated public service.

Dave Yost
Auditor of State

The UAN current user fee schedule is shown below. An additional column has been added on the right to show the reduced monthly user fee. The new fee will be reflected in the March 31, 2014 billing.

Annual Financial Report

It is very good to see that a large percent of your 2013 AFRs have been submitted to our office. We know that many of you performed this task for the first time in the new application but we were confident that you would be successful. Here is a link to a page within the UANLink where you can check to be sure that we have received your submission prior to the due date next week: <https://uanlink.ohioauditor.gov/resources/YearEnd/Default.aspx>. For the small number of clients that haven't submitted your AFR as of yet, please don't hesitate to contact UAN Support with any questions that you may have.
