RE: Version 2013.1 Minimum Computer Requirements

If you are choosing to run version 2013.1 on your UAN Personal Computer (PC) as a single user, just as you are running UAN today, then your system meets the hardware and operating system requirements for version 2013.1 and you can disregard this memo.

The purpose of this memo is to provide guidance on the minimum computer hardware and operating system requirements to use UAN version 2013.1.

If you are choosing to take advantage of the multi-user capabilities within UAN version 2013.1 or considering putting the application on a PC different than your UAN PC, then this information is important to you. There are 3 scenarios that are possible and they are defined below and the minimum requirements are given for each. Your IT staff will be able to help you understand the networking options available to you within your environment. Additionally, UAN Technical Support will assist you by answering questions that you may have.
